

What is Baby Massage?

Baby Massage is a holistic and natural way to promote infant health, improve parenting skills, deepen bonding and strengthen family bonds, and create a more caring and compassionate future generation.

Baby massage encompasses nurturing touch, massage and reflexology in a fun, loving way.

What are the benefits?

The benefits of baby massage:

- nurtures parent/child bonding
- promotes parental confidence with handling & caring for their baby
- relaxes & soothes the parent & infant
- helps babies settle better & calm themselves more easily
- strengthens the immune system
- improves digestion and circulation
- enhances weight gain & brain development
- fosters intimacy between fathers and babies
- allows working parents quality, valuable time with their baby
- aids in the recovery of post-natal depression

Can I learn baby massage?

Yes! Baby Massage is easy and fun to learn. With the right guidance and encouragement from a qualified baby massage instructor, parents, caregivers & babies can enjoy the benefits of baby massage.

What people are saying:

"Baby massage improved our connection, encouraged better/deeper sleeping patterns and is a lifelong skill I can use whenever my child is stressed." Belinda.

"Moira promotes a very relaxed, welcoming, friendly atmosphere for Dads and babies." Dads comment.

"Baby massage enhanced the bonding with my daughter. Moira has fantastic teaching and modelling styles, which makes an enjoyable class. I would recommend this baby massage course to any new or existing parent, even Dads!! Why not get a group together to learn and share your baby massage techniques together, like I did with a girlfriend, it was fun" Kristy.
